management by risk assessment. This role works closely with the Group Practice Leader and will be supporting and teaching in a group practice model. Primary duties will include clinical and pre-clinical teaching, including lecture, seminar and continuing education activities covering all areas of general dentistry including diagnosis, treatment planning, prevention, restorative, endodontics, fixed and removable prosthodontics including implants, digital dentistry, and nonsurgical periodontics.

The individuals selected must have U.S. DDS/DMD or an equivalent degree and must have current or be eligible for California dental licensure. At least three years of clinical dental experience is preferred. Previous predoctoral teaching experience is preferred.

Academic series, rank, and salary level will be based on the successful applicant's experience.

For positions that are 51% effort or more:

The posted UC salary scales set the minimum pay determined by rank and step at appointment. See Table 5. The minimum base salary range for this position is $97,300-$297,200. This position includes membership in the health sciences compensation plan which provides for eligibility for additional compensation.

For positions that are 50% effort or less:

See Table 2 for the salary range for this position. A reasonable estimate for this position is $74,800-$228,600.

Interested applicants should apply online at <https://aprecruit.ucsf.edu/JPF04956> with a CV, cover letter, statement of teaching, statement of contributions to diversity, and the contact information for three references. Applicant materials must list current and/or pending qualifications upon submission. The selected candidates must meet all of the qualifications at the time of appointment. The positions are open until filled. Due to the large number of applications, only potential candidates selected for an interview will receive return correspondence.

UC San Francisco seeks candidates whose experience, teaching, research, or community service has prepared them to contribute to our commitment to diversity and excellence. The University of California is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age or protected veteran status.
