serve as the Advanced Education Program Director for the Orthodontics Program in the Division of Craniofacial and Surgical Care at the UNC Adams School of Dentistry. Responsibilities include: oversight of resident recruitment and selection for the orthodontics program, coordinating and providing didactic instruction and clinical supervision for advanced education and pre-doctoral students in the dental school, ensuring program compliance with the Commission on Dental Accreditation (CODA), and preparing for and maintaining CODA accreditation. This position will also participate in the Dental Faculty Practice. A record of scholarly activity is desirable, and the pursuit of scholarly activity is expected. Attractive opportunities for collaboration exist within the dental school, the academic health center, and the greater University. The ideal candidate must have a demonstrated record of achievement as a strong teacher, mentor, leader, care provider, and scholar.

Applications will be accepted and reviewed until the position is filled. Interested candidates should apply online at <https://unc.peopleadmin.com/postings/178277> and attach a cover letter addressed to the search committee chair, Ceib Phillips. Included should be a current curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, current and future research interests, previous administrative responsibilities and names and full contact information for at least three professional references. Track, rank, and salary will be commensurate with experience and education.

Educational Requirements: Candidates must have a Doctor of Dental Surgery (DDS), Doctor of Dental Medicine (DMD), or equivalent degree and be board-certified as a Diplomate of the American Board of Orthodontics.

Experience: 4 years post residency/fellowship completion.
