commitment to excellence in dental education.&nbsp; Learn more at&nbsp;Go.uth.edu/EndoChair. The School of&nbsp; Dentistry&rsquo;s mission is &ldquo;to improve human health by providing high-quality education, patient care, service and research in oral health for Texas, the nation and the world.&rdquo; The Chair is an integral part of the School of Dentistry&rsquo;s administrative team and will provide innovative leadership and advocacy in key areas of predoctoral and postdoctoral education, patient care and research and promote an environment of inclusion and respect for students, faculty and staff. The department has three critical areas of responsibility: predoctoral education in endodontics, the Advanced Education Program in Endodontics, and research. The Chair will provide vision, focus and mentorship to further develop a dynamic and growing department, and will identify, cultivate and pursue internal and external partnerships that lead to collaborative opportunities. Other duties will include administrative responsibilities, such as departmental planning and budgeting, staffing and supervision; and departmental representation to the School of Dentistry, UTHealth Houston and the community. The Chair of Endodontics will also have the opportunity for faculty practice, and applicants must be eligible for full or faculty licensure in Texas.&nbsp; This position reports to the Dean of the School of Dentistry.

Requirements

DDS/DMD or equivalent degree, advanced training in Endodontics, plus experience in the field. Board certification in Endodontics is preferred, however candidates with eligibility for board certification will be considered; demonstrated record of teaching, academic leadership, successful research, and/or involvement in dental education; credentials meriting appointment to the rank of associate or full professor on the tenure or non-tenure track; minimum of five years administrative supervisory experience; effective communication skills; and,

demonstrated experience working effectively in a diverse environment.

Academic rank and salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.
