is serving the community on its main campus and community-based clinics in Milwaukee and through outreach clinics across the state of Wisconsin.

Group Leaders oversee the students, patients and staff assigned to the groups and are responsible for the management of all patient care delivered within the groups. Group Leaders play key role in predoctoral clinical operations and student's achievement of clinical competencies.

Duties and Responsibilities

CPMG Leaders are responsible for student's clinical progress and achievement of clinical training milestones. CPMG Leaders provide guidance, monitoring and direct clinical supervision to their assigned students and promote comprehensive patient care. They are responsible for implementing clinical policies and clinical management. Group leaders are expected to model professionalism in oral health care at its best. The Group Leaders report to the Chair of General Dental Sciences for academic matters and to the Clinic Director for matters relating to clinical operations.
