The faculty member will participate actively in clinical and didactic teaching. The primary focus of the position will be teaching and program support in the Predoctoral Periodontal Program. Additionally, the candidate will contribute to teaching in the Postgraduate Periodontal Program. The faculty member will be expected to identify and pursue an area of clinical or translational expertise and focus leading to investigation and publication of novel results. The faculty member will participate in mentoring certificate and MS degree resident research projects.

Qualifications

Qualified applicants must hold a dental degree (DMD, DDS or equivalent), a certificate of Advanced Education in Periodontology, and eligibility for or certification by the American Board of Periodontology. Eligibility for regular or faculty dental licensure in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts is required.

Individuals with evidence of teaching excellence, developing administrative experience, as well as interpersonal, communication, collaborative and team building skills, as well as proficiency on software for organization, scheduling and productivity are particularly encouraged to apply for this position. Academic rank, tenure, and salary will be commensurate with experience and qualifications.

Application Instructions

Interested applicants should submit a) a current curriculum vitae, b) a cover letter with a statement of academic goals and description of interest in and goals for the position, and c) contact information (incl. E-mail addresses) for three references electronically at: <https://apply.interfolio.com/87396>

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until a candidate has been selected.

Questions regarding the search process or assistance with uploading applications may be directed to Monika Bankowski, Sr. Faculty Affairs Officer (monika.bankowski@tufts.edu).
